

VOTING INFORMATION FOR KIDS

Elect to learn about how elections and voting works by checking out one of these resources with your child.

Visit CheltenhamLibraries.org and visit the following under our "Research It" button (you will need your library card):

- TruFlix - Click on "U. S. Government" for books to read and resources to visit about voting, elections, and how our government works. (Recommended for ages 6-10)
- BookFlix - Click on "Family & Community" for a variety of pairings of fiction and nonfiction on voting, elections, and more. (Recommended for preschool to age 8)

Don't forget to check out Hoopla and Overdrive for eBooks to borrow!

Other Links to Visit:

- Ben's Guide To The U.S. Government - Join Ben Franklin to learn about elections, the Government, and more through this interactive website. (Recommended for preschool to teen)
- Wonderopolis has these and more: (Recommended for ages 6-10)
 - Why Do We Vote on Tuesdays
 - What Is a Democracy
 - Where Do Political Symbols Come From

