Collaborative Art Project: Exquisite Corpse at the Elkins Park Library

Monday, June 9 - Saturday, June 21

Come to the library to add a tile or three to our exquisite corpse project. Exquisite corpse is a game first played by the Surrealists to stimulate creativity. Each person creates a part of a figure without looking at what the others have done. Put them all together and you end up with something bizarre that one person couldn't come up with alone. Draw a head, torso, and/or legs of a being to be added to the collection for mixing and matching. Not feeling artistic? Feel free to come and rearrange the tiles to create a unique figure for all to admire. All ages.

Gardening for Late Harvest at the Glenside Library

Tuesday, June 10 @ 6:30 pm

Learn from Master Gardener Kristi Wenrich how to extend your garden harvests deep into the dark, cold, days! Vegetable Gardening for Late Summer, Fall, and Winter Harvest covers succession planning, day length factors, and crop protection strategies.
